

Advance Spinal Deformity Symposium: From young to old

Course description

This comprehensive spinal deformity program is designed to update knowledge of spine surgeons through a blend of interactive lectures, practical case discussions. Attendees will delve into essential spinal surgery techniques, participate in collaborative discussions with peers and faculty, and gain exposure to complex surgical scenarios. Throughout, the program emphasises surgical confidence, informed decision-making and teamwork, nurturing the development of future leaders in spinal care.

Course Director

Adj Prof Gabriel Liu
Senior Consultant NUHS

International Faculty

Prof Marinus de Kleuver
Past President of Scoliosis
Research Society (SRS)
Radboud University Medical Centre
Nijmegen, Gublerland
Netherlands

Prof Kim Hak-Sun
Chief editor, Asian Spine Journal
Korean Orthopaedic Association President
Orthopaedic Spine Surgeon
Yonsei University College of Medicine and Severance Hospital
Seoul, South Korea

Prof Saharil Alan Mokhtar
Malaysian Orthopaedic Association President
Department of Orthopaedics and Traumatology
Faculty of Medicine Universiti Kebangsaan
Malaysia (UKM)

Prof Zheng Zhemin
Head, Department of Spine Surgery
The First Affiliated Hospital
of Sun Yat-sen University
Guangzhou, China

Adj A/Prof Jacob Oh
Singapore Spine Society President
Senior Consultant and Deputy Head
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Date: 14 October 2026 (Wednesday)

Time: 9.30am

Venue: NUHS Tower Block
Level 6 Lecture Room T06-03

Other Local Faculty

Adj Prof Naresh Kumar
A/Prof Joseph Thambiah
A/Prof Dennis Hey
Clin A/Prof Reuben Soh
Adj Asst Prof Jonathan Tan
Dr Lau Leok Lim

Dr Dinesh Shree Kumar
Dr Ou Yang Youheng
Dr Alex Teo
Dr Tan Jun Hao
Dr John Ruiz
Dr Wayne Yap

Please Scan the code to register

Registration closes
13 October 2026

